THE COMPLETE PROGRAM THAI ACUPRESSURE

NOAM TYROLER

has been practicing Thai massage since 1989. He was trained at the Shivaga Komarpaj School in Chiangmai, Wat Po School in Bangkok and studied with a lot of famous teachers. His book "Thai acupressure" is the first book on traditional Thai formulas of acupressure points for the treatment of orthopedic disorders.

This intensiv workshop represents the essence of Noam's experience of work and study in therapeutic Thai Yoga massage. In this workshop you will learn the locations of 22 therapy lines and most of the 230 acupressure points, as well as useful traditional Thai acupressure routines. These formulas have been tested in practice, they are highly efficient, but not difficult to apply.

This workshop is open for practitioners of related disciplines such as Shiatsu and Tuina, as well as physiotherapist and other bodyworkers. The Course will be in English language, if it's needed we can translate.
